

Information about using this form

If there is more than one review applicant, you must have the authority of each applicant to provide the information in this form on their behalf.

Except where otherwise indicated, the questions in this form relate to the primary applicant. The primary applicant is the person seeking to satisfy the primary criteria for a Student visa on the basis of being enrolled in a registered course of study.

If there is not enough space to respond to any question in this form, please attach additional sheets with your response.

You may also provide any additional information, including any documents, you wish to give in support of your application when you return this form.

Information in a language other than English must be accompanied by an English translation from an accredited translator.

This form is for visa applications made on or after 23 March 2024.

In considering whether an applicant is a genuine applicant for entry and stay as a student, the ART must have regard to Ministerial Direction No. 106. ‘Assessing the genuine entry and stay requirements for student visa and student guardian visa applications.’

14 Please tell us anything you (the primary applicant) would like the Tribunal to know about your circumstances in Australia and anything you would like the Tribunal to take into account.

When considering the circumstances in Australia, the Tribunal will consider the following factors if they are relevant to your situation.

- Your knowledge of living in Australia.
- Your knowledge of your current and proposed course(s) of study and associated education provider including your previous study and qualifications
- The level of research you have undertaken into your proposed course(s) of study and living arrangements.
- Whether the Student visa is being used to maintain ongoing residence and not for the purpose of study.
- Any other matter you consider relevant.

Section 4 – Value of your current and proposed study to your future

- 15 Please tell us anything you (the primary applicant) would like the Tribunal to know about why your current and any proposed course(s) (if any) are valuable to your future and anything you would like the Tribunal to take into account.

When considering the value of your current and proposed course(s) to your future, the Tribunal will consider the following factors if they are relevant to your situation.

- How the course(s) you are undertaking and proposing to undertake is consistent with your current level of education;
- How the course(s) you are undertaking and proposing to undertake is consistent with your past employment;
- How the course(s) will assist you to obtain employment or improve your employment prospects when you return to your home country or another country;
- Your reasons for any changes to career and/or study pathway;
- The remuneration you could expect to receive in your home country or another country, using the qualifications to be gained from your study in Australia; and
- Any other matter you consider relevant.

Section 5 – Your immigration history

16 What date did you (the primary applicant) first arrive in Australia?

DAY / MONTH / YEAR

17 Please give details of all Australian visas you (the primary applicant) hold or have held previously.

- Have you (the primary applicant) failed to comply with the conditions of all current and previously held Australian visas?
☐ Yes
☐ No

19 If you answered YES to any of the questions at Question 18, please give details including:

- the country
- the type of visa
- the date of application
- (if applicable) the date and reason the visa was refused, cancelled or considered for cancellation
- Any other relevant information, explanation or circumstances (including circumstances beyond your control)

20 Do you have health insurance for the duration of your stay in Australia?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

Section 6 – Any other relevant matter

21 Please tell us about any other relevant matter you would like the Tribunal to take into account.

When considering any other relevant matter, the Tribunal will consider the following factors if they are relevant to your situation.

- If you have multiple course loads, whether successful completion of the course(s) you are studying would be impossible or highly improbable
- If you previously held a Student visa – whether you were reasonably engaged in the course of study for which the visa was granted having regard to whether:
 - you satisfied course requirements;
 - you participated in assessment activities;
 - you commenced and completed your course as scheduled;
 - you demonstrated logical course progression;
 - you have a history of starting, but not completing courses; and
 - there are study gaps of concern, a pattern of changing or deferring courses, changing to unrelated courses or changing education providers.

22 Please give details of your (the primary applicant's) property or other significant assets you own in Australia
